Team/Coach:

Player Expectations and Commitments

Upon selection to a team, you are expected to participate in all team activities, including training, matches, and any other club related activity. As a player you are expected to take your participation in the program seriously. You should be committed to improving as a player and as a person. Each training session is crucial in the development process and attendance is required.

Express players are required to:

1. Represent SSYS in a positive manner at all events, home and away. Conduct yourself with class & dignity.
2. Attend and be prepared for all training sessions, this means being on time, having all of your equipment and being ready to train.
3. Give your coaches at least 24 hrs advance notice if you are going to miss a training session or a match.
4. Give everything you have at every training session and match to be able to improve skills and the understanding of the game.
5. Understand that playing time is not guaranteed and that playing time is directly related to ability/skills, effort in training, punctuality, and attitude.
6. Encourage your fellow teammates. Be a positive role model to your teammates.
7. Respect coaches/trainers and their decisions. Follow their instructions for all club related activities.
8. Never engage in a disrespectful manner on the field with a coach, official, teammate or anyone else. Conduct yourself in a professional manner.
9. Never leave a match or training session without the permission of the coach.
10. Never use alcohol, tobacco, or any controlled substance.
11. Abide by the rules of the game, the club, the leagues, the facilities, the tournaments, the team and your coach.

By signing below, I agree to abide by the previous requirements, rules and guidelines. If I fail to do so, I shall be subject to disciplinary actions by the SSYS Board and may be dismissed from the team.
